WHO NEEDS LONG TERM CARE INSURANCE?

Maybe you!
- If you are hoping to set up a financial plan for a worry-free retirement
- If you worry about being a burden to your family
- If you don’t have family members to take care of you
- If you want to remain independent for as long as you are able

WHY BUY NOW?

As an employee, you may purchase coverage during the enrollment period without having to fill out an Evidence of Insurability application, as long as you do not choose benefits that exceed the Guarantee Issue limits. Your enrollment kit contains complete information on the Guarantee Issue limits. If you wait to enroll, you will need to fill out the Evidence of Insurability application and may not be accepted into the plan.

Guarantee Issue means that you do not have to fill out an Evidence of Insurability application. The younger you are when you buy Unum’s Long Term Care Insurance, the lower the cost. The rate is based on your age at the time of purchase. If you change employers or retire, you can still keep your coverage at affordable group rates.

- The national average cost of a private room in a nursing home is about $70,000 a year\(^1\). In some regions, it can cost twice that amount.
- The average hourly rate for a home health aide is $25. Based on this rate, four hours of home health aide services daily would total about $35,500 a year\(^2\).
- The average base rate for a private room in assisted living care is about $33,300 a year\(^3\).

CHOOSING YOUR PLAN

When considering the plan that is the best for you, ask yourself these questions:

- Where do I want to receive care?
- How much money do I want for care?
- How long do I want the care to last?

This is known as the asset disregard amount when applying for Medicaid.

In order for your plan to be a qualified Partnership, plan the following plans must be chosen based on your age: if you are 75 years old or younger, you must purchase Plan 3 or Plan 4, which contain compound inflation; if you are over age 75, then all of the plans offered will qualify as a Partnership plan.
